

Bulletin #2007-008    20 – August - 2007

Subject:

Temporary suspension of Article 3.3.A

Overview:

Effective immediately, the requirement for a competitor's driving suit to carry the championship patch or embroidery or other patches or embroidery as described in Article 3.3.A and Figure 3-2 is temporarily suspended.

Rationale:

At the New England Forest Rally, it was noted that the required patches, embroidery or names did not appear on several competitors' driving suits. In discussions with the Stewards, it was determined that these competitors were concerned that modifying their suits as required by the rules would invalidate the FIA homologation of the driving suits.

With the Ojibwe Forests Rally coming up so soon, it was decided to suspend the rule while the issue is being studied. The suspension of Article 3.3.A will likely be lifted in the weeks before Rally Colorado.
